

Preserving the heritage

In developing existing infrastructures, particular attention has been paid to structures of heritage interest. Some examples are given below.

A double track viaduct expanded for 4 tracks in future: the Pede viaduct

Construction of a bridge stop (platforms and access) built on a set of arches: the Arcades stop at Watermael-Boitsfort

